DESCRIBING OBJECTS:

SIZE How big is it?
- Tiny, little, small, medium-sized, big, enormous, huge, pocket-sized

COLOUR What colour is it?
- Blue, red, white, black, green, silver, golden, brown, purple...

SHAPE What shape is it?
- Square, round, oval, triangular, rectangular, cylindrical, cube, heart-shaped

MATERIAL What is it made of?
- Wood, plastic, leather, glass, rubber, clay, cotton, metal (silver, gold, iron, steel, brass, tin)

PURPOSE What is it used for?
- Cutting, sleeping, cooking, writing, reading, playing, walking

OTHER INFORMATION
- Portable, stylish, waterproof, heavy, disposable, useful, old-fashioned, priceless...

INVENTION
- It was invented by..., in....

It is a nice, big and heavy, old, rectangular television set. It is made of glass, copper and plastic. It is used for watching movies, the news, soap operas, quiz programmes... Television was invented by John Logie Baird in 1925.

Remember: Adjective order: opinion, size, age, shape, colour, origin, material, purpose + noun.